

See the Sealth pass through the Hiram M. Chittenden Locks in Ballard

Beginning at 7 a.m. on Monday, July 25, the 90-car Issaquah Class Sealth will be towed from Eagle harbor Maintenance Facility on Bainbridge Island, through Seattle's Lake Washington Ship Canal, to Lake Union DryDock for maintenance.

The Sealth will travel through the Hiram M. Chittenden Locks at approximately 8:15 a.m. and will pass under the Ballard and Fremont bridges on its route. Use the map to find viewing locations near you and come see the Sealth transit in areas where it is not usually found!

Life ring award

On Tuesday Port Captain Bill Michael presented a life ring award to Able-bodied Seaman Greg Smith for his role in pulling two men to safety from an overturned canoe in Edmonds on July 2. Congratulations Greg, and thank you for your service!

July 22, 2016

Happy Birthday, Hyak!

Wednesday, July 20th, 2016 marks the Hyak's 49th birthday! The Hyak has an interesting history and is known for being America's largest 2-ended ferry in 1967. Today you can find the Hyak serving riders on the Seattle- Bremerton route.

Fall sailing reservations now available

Reservations for the fall sailing schedule are now available. The fall sailing schedule begins September 18, 2016, and will continue through January 7, 2017.

Paddle to Nisqually

The annual Paddle to Nisqually canoe journey will take place next week near many ferry routes. If you are interested in viewing the tribal canoes they will be in the Lower Puget Sound (Salish Sea) on the following dates:

July 25 & 26: Downtown Suquamish

Views possible from the Mukilteo/Clinton and Edmonds/Kingston routes

July 27: Alki Beach

Views possible from Seattle/Bainbridge and Seattle/Bremerton routes

July 28: Commencement Bay

Views possible from Seattle/Bremerton, Fauntleroy/Vashon/Southworth, and Point Defiance/Tahlequah routes

July 29: Final landing at Puget Marina in Olympia

Views possible from Point Defiance/Tahlequah route

Southworth Terminal repairs complete

Early this morning overnight crews completed repairs to the vehicle transfer span at the Southworth terminal. Thank you all for your flexibility during the necessary closure.

Lynne Griffith

Assistant Secretary, WSDOT/Ferries Division

WSF Weekly Updates are available on our website at www.wsdot.wa.gov/ferries/weekly

Questions? Contact us at WSFWeeklyUpdate@wsdot.wa.gov

STAY CONNECTED:

SUBSCRIBER SERVICES:

Manage Preferences | Unsubscribe | Help

This email was sent to Email Address using GovDelivery, on behalf of: WSDOT
310 Maple Park Ave SE · Olympia, WA 98504